

Empire Die Casting Co., Inc
JOB DESCRIPTION

Die Cast Maker/Trim Die Maker

JOB DESCRIPTION SUMMARY

The function of the Die Maker is to build, maintain, repair cast dies, trim dies, and machining fixtures. The Die Maker is accountable for the quality of tooling.

REPORTING RELATIONSHIPS

The Die maker reports directly to the tool room Foreman.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Acquire job assignment from tool room Foreman/ engineering
- Acquire all paperwork needed for job assignment including tool repair cards, die repair cards, trim die repair cards.
- Complete tasks per work instructions (tool repair cards, die repair cards, trim die repair cards)
- Working knowledge of procedure relating to repairs.
- Perform quality checks as needed. (Ask for detailed instructions when necessary)
- Request training when needed.
- Understands procedure for part-print 3d models dimension change. (Only with Foreman / Engineering approval.)
- Keep all equipment clean and maintain properly.
- Insure proper recording all work orders.
- Performs special projects and all other duties deemed necessary by the Tool room Foreman /Engineering.
- Strong mathematical capability.
- Strong blueprint reading and mechanical ability.
- Working knowledge of all tool room equipment.
- Competent in the reading, writing and communicating in the English language.
- Knowledge of die casting.
- Improvement in capability skills score.

Education and Experience

Completed die maker apprenticeship program or equivalent combination of education